

Global Practice Patterns in Pregnancy-Associated Thromboprophylaxis

A survey by SSC Subcommittee on Women's Health

Guidelines

Different recommendations

Limited clinical evidence

Variation in clinical practice

 International Survey

-  When should prophylaxis start?
-  Which dose should be used?
-  How long should treatment continue?

Help define current practice and future research needs:

-  Family history of thrombosis
-  Cesarean section
-  Clinical risk factors

Scan QR Code

Participate in the global effort to standardize care.

